VOLUME VII WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, TUESDAY MAY 20, 1913 NUMBER 6

UP TO JAPAN TO MAKE NEXT MOVE

SHE IS TO TAKE NEXT STEP IN ALIEN LAW NEGOTIATIONS

COURT TEST IS POSSIBLE

Will Likely Be Several Days Before Any Further Action is Taken

By Associated Press

Washington, May 20—With the answer of the United States to its protest in hand it now devolves on the Japanese foreign office to take the next step in the negotiations over the California alien land law it was expected today that the forthcoming rejoinder will be strongely argumentative and calculated to result in the conduct of the future negotiation on a strictly legal basis.

It is understood the State Department is looking to the Japanese government, or some Japanese citizen to test the new law by recourse to the United States courts and it may be significant of the drawing of another issue that the Japanese are believed to be reluctant to take such a movement.

Delay of Several Days.

Viscount Chinda dispatched the State Department's reply to his Government and it is assumed that several days may elapse before the next step is taken

In view of the understanding between the two Governments regarding withholding of the correspondence from publicity, none of the officials at the White House, the State Department or the Japanese embassy cared to indicate the nature of the Japanese objections, or of Secretary Bryan's reply.

From other sources, however, it was gathered that while the Japanese allege technical violations of the treaty of 1911 by the California law, these relate to minor provisions, such as that prohibiting Japanese from inheriting property in California. The real weight of objection is against the spirit of the whole legislation which is regarded as distinctly discriminatory against the Japanese The spirit of the convention, as well as the general principles of international law, are regarded by Japan as outraged by this act. The fact that the United States has entered into treaty relations with Japan is cited as an admission of equality

Bryan's Answer

In his answer Secretary Bryan is understood to have recounted at length efforts made by the Administration to guard against an infringement of the treaty rights of the Japanese. Officials here believe that this substantially has been accomplished and that at any rate, if the Japanese Government takes a contrary view, it will be easy for it to test the matter in American courts This is pointed out to seem to remove the issue from one of treaty construction, if the State Department's view is correct.

It is realized here that the Japanese Government is not much concerned about the exclusion of its subjects from America, for they are much needed in Manchuria, Korea and Formosa Underlying the whole objection, it is said, is the intense National pride of the Japanese, which has been touched to the quick by the general development of anti Japanese feeling on the Pacific coast Official circles realize that the negotiations from this point forward must be conducted with extreme caution but there is a general conviction that an amicable solution of the problems involved eventually will be reached

JAPAN AROUSED, BUT IS HOPEFUL

PUBLIC NOT RECONCILED

Feel That Affair Is One Which Involves Nation's Honor—Pacification Not Easy

By Associated Press

Tokio May 20—News that the California alien land ownership bill had been signed by Gov Johnson was received here with regret although it had been discounted in official and non official circles It was hoped however up to the last moment the Washington's intervention would prove successful Efforts of the Japanese government are concentrated at present in pacifying public opinion but the task is regarded in many quarters as more difficult than the California school controversy of a year ago

Since the death of the old Japanese emperor, the authority of the government has steadily diminished in resisting the growing influence of public opinion and the spirit of democracy is augmenting throughout the empire

It is generally believed here that Washington will find a solution of the problem, but more conservative elements are now echoing the public agitation for equal treatment of the Japanese They declare that the racial issue which is involved in the steady recurrence of anti Japanese bills in California should receive drastic curative treatment"

The Japanese feel that their national honor is involved

TEN INNING GAME WON BY WICHITA

DENISON PROTESTS WHEN BROWN BATS IN WINNING RUN OF CONTEST

LONG LEAD IS OVERCOME

Blue Box Score Four Runs in Fourth But Drillers Keep Fighting and Finally Nose Out

Special to the Times

Denison, Texas, May 20.—Wichita Falls won a doubtful victory yesterday afternoon, Denison protesting the result as a result of a decision in the tenth inning. With the bases full and one down, Brown smashed a line drive into Harper's hands; the short stop got his mitt on the ball for an instance, then juggled it for a second or two. While he was engaged in this slight of hand exhibition, Kane who was on third, came in.

Denison claims that Harper finally held the ball without it touching the ground. The umpire, Markle, decided otherwise and permitted the score to count. Denison could do nothing with Kane in her half of the tenth and Wichita Falls won, 5 to 4.

The Drillers came from three runs behind and tied the score in the seventh and ninth, by hitting Glennard. Wichita Falls scored in the first on a hit by Nevitt, a sacrifice by White and a two bagger by Nicholson. In the fourth a succession of errors and hits enabled Denison to count four times. In the seventh, with Brown on second, Workman hit for four bases. In the ninth an error by Harper, with hits by Workman and Lawson, enabled Wichita Falls to tie the score and the local fans who thought the game was over changed their minds.

Kane started the tenth with a single. Nevitt fanned. White and Nicholson were safe on short hits filling the bases. Then Brown came up and sent the hot one to Harper. Denison beefed long and loud over the decision, but Markle had his own ideas about it.

Myers will probably oppose Denison this afternoon for the Drillers. Wichita Falls will be back home tomorrow for a series with the Ardmoreites. Yesterday's score:

PLAN FOR COUNTY FAIR TAKES FORM

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS TAKE FAVORABLE ACTION

RACES WILL BE FEATURE

Circle Building at Lake Wichita Will Be Used for County's Agricultural Exhibits

A movement for a county fair, to be held at Lake Wichita in connection with the race meet here next August, was set on foot this morning at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors, and seems likely to go through.

The matter was brought up by T. R. T. Orth who explained that the circle building could be used for agricultural exhibits and that it could be in the same enclosure as the race track and live stock. It was planned, he said, to fill in the arches of the circle building, making it a closed structure. Fancywork and cooking exhibits, he said, could be placed in the pavilion.

The exhibits could be used to make a Wichita county exhibit at the Dallas Fair, Mr. Orth said, and the fair would be of value in that way. The only expense to be incurred, he said, was the money for premiums.

The directors expressed themselves favorably on the proposition, which was referred to the fair committee, with authority to act. It is probable that a paid secretary will be employed and the committee has an available man in mind.

Two racing circuits will be represented at the fair, one coming from the south, the other from Oklahoma, so that followers of the "sport of kings" ought to be able to find ample entertainment. It is hoped to go into the matter on a basis that will secure representative exhibits of every class and make the fair a successful one from its inception.

TENTH STREET PAVING PROPOSITION GROWING

A total of 115 property owners on Tenth street, representing 11,000 front feet of property, have signed the new paving petition to the city council, and only about 3000 more front feet are needed to have a sufficient number for the work to go ahead.

The new plan for paving is to carry the work from Indiana avenue all the way to J. A. Kemp's residence, a distance of about two miles, giving one of the finest and prettiest roadways in the South. To carry the plan through, three-fourths of the property owners must agree to pay their pro rata of the cost, standing the full expense of paving from the curb to the center of the street. When three-fourths of the property owners agree, the work can proceed without the consent of the other one fourth.

The committee in charge of the work, headed by C. W. Snider will resume work shortly and hopes to have the proposition in shape for the work to start without further delay.

STUDENTS MAKE GOOD AS ACTORS

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS PRESENT PLAY TO CROWD AT MAJESTIC

MUCH TALENT DISPLAYED

Parts are Well Carried out and Production Finds Favor With Large Audience

Students of the high school took the boards as actors and actresses at the Majestic last night, in the presentation of a college play, "At the End of the Rainbow." A house that was filled almost to capacity witnessed the performance and enjoyed the production to the limit.

While dealing with college life the play has many dramatic possibilities, which the members of the cast availed themselves of to excellent advantage. With the one general criticism that they did not speak their lines loud enough to be heard all over the house, the students acquitted themselves very creditably indeed.

The audience was enthusiastic in its appreciation, for the most part, but some naughty boys in the gallery threw lemons at the actors, while bunches of garden truck were tossed from the parquet in lieu of the bouquets which are supposed to express one's compliments.

The students seem to suffer not at all with stage fright and so far as the interpretation of their lines and parts went, there has been much worse acting seen on the Majestic stage at $1.50 per throw. The students were directed by Miss Stringfield of the College of Music and Art, to whom belongs no small share of the credit. The play was for the benefit of the high school library and the sum of $1[illegible] was realized. Following is the caste of characters:

Robert Preston, a lawyer—Roy Anglin.

Douglas Brown, a football player—Ralph Pond.

Stanley Palmer, Hawkins the Butler—J. L. Jackson.

DR. HILL RETURNS FROM TRIP TO THE PANHANDLE

Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon at Canyon City Normal, and Has Interesting Trip

Dr. J. W. Hill returned from Canyon City this morning at 3 o'clock. In an interview for The Times, he said in part:

"My trip was pleasant but very strenuous. I preached the commencement sermon Sunday morning for the State Normal, took a thirty mile auto ride in the afternoon to visit the Grand Canyon and preached again at the Methodist church in the evening. The trouble was, I found it very difficult to sleep out there, owing to the extra high winds—extra, it seemed to me, though the people there considered it a normal zephyr.

"That school is a wonder, in size, structure and equipment. It is furnished with all the modern conveniences and attachments, including gymnastic, industrial and natatorium departments. Its auditorium is the largest of any school building in the State. The building is about 300x150 and is three stories high. The campus is thickly set with trees—black locust—which are growing off beautifully, and in a few years will furnish abundant shade. The view from the college in all directions is one of the most picturesque in the State. The rains have been abundant this year, and the kaffir corn and maize and alfalfa are in the finest possible condition. This country is the home of the bullionaire, there being quite a number of men in Amarillo and this place whose wealth in land and cattle goes beyond the million mark. The whole land is under fence. It is the paradise of the automobile, the roads being naturally macadamized and one can go scores of miles across the open prairie without suffering any inconvenience at all.

"I met a number of old friends here, besides President Cousins and Professor Stafford, whom I have known for a quarter of a century. One of the most pleasing incidents was my meeting with a Baptist minister by the name of Younger, who was converted under my ministry when I was a boy preacher, and whom I had never seen from that day till this. He read one of the scripture lessons for the occasion and feelingly referred to the incident of his conversion. I don't know when I have been more moved by thankfulness than by his tender and brotherly remarks.

"There are between 500 and 600 students who go to their homes this week; and even a larger number are booked to attend the summer normal which begins within the next ten days. Of all the schools and colleges in the State, ecclesiastical or secular, this is the most attractive for a summer term. The climate, with the exception of the wind, being almost ideal.

"Yes, that canyon is a wonderful thing. One comes upon it abruptly, right out in the open prairie, and looks down from dizzy heights into depths that make grown people who are standing below seem no larger than little toddlers. The geological formation and the shrubbery and flora within the bosom of the canyon are curious, beautiful and interesting. The pineapple cacus, the catclaw and two or three kinds of cedar, to say nothing of a wealth of variegated flowers, are so plentiful that all our Wichita ladies might be able to supply their front yards and still the canyon would not be robbed of its beauty. I am indebted to Mr. Christian, with his strong old Buick, and to Professors Cousins and Stafford for the pleasure of this trip.

"I preached to crowded houses both morning and evening, the large and capacious Methodist church being packed almost to suffocation at the evening hour. Having informed the powers that be that it was my habit to close promptly on the minute, Professor Cousins took it upon himself to pay at the morning hour as did also Bro. Neal in the evening that the bridle was off, and that I was not only permitted but requested to continue as long as I pleased. The result was, I preached nearly an hour on both occasions. The sum and substance of all this was and is, the pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, of Wichita Falls on the morning of May 20th, finds himself just a wee bit weary. However a few hours with the loved ones at home and basking for a short while in the sunshine of so many friendly faces in dear old Wichita Falls will smooth out all the wrinkles except those which have been made by the hand of time, and thank the Lord, they are not as many as they might be on a man who has passed the fifty year mark."

Annual Meeting Wil be Held Then, Followed by Smoker—Banquet in July

The annual meeting and election of the Retail Merchants' Association will be held a week from tomorrow, on May 28, and will be followed by a smoker. Sometime in July the annual banquet will be held, everyone being too busy at present to make arrangements for it.

At their annual meeting the new officers will hear reports of the work of the past year, and will elect officers and directors for the ensuing twelve months. It was decided to postpone the banquet which usually follows the annual meeting, until July, when more time can be given it.

UP-TO-DATENESS KEYNOTE IN NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

Thirteenth Street Structure Will Embody Many Modern Ideas in Construction

In the new Thirteenth street school building the contract for which was let Saturday morning, simplicity, dignity and usefulness have been the leading ideas emphasized by the architects, Pate & von der Lippe in designing the building. The result is an economical, sanitary and beautiful building that will bear favorable comparison with the finest examples of modern American school architecture.

The exterior will be faced with Acme pressed brick, with stone trimmings. The building will contain ten class rooms, two in the basement story and four on each of the other two floors. Each room is arranged to be lighted from the left side only. Cloak rooms are provided in the rear of each class room with lifting doors and have umbrella holders and all the necessary coat and hat hooks. The corridors have two large stairways, one located at each end. Drinking fountains are provided on each floor. On the second floor is the principal's office, enclosed on each side with large accordeon doors that when open will form an auditorium in connection with the two class rooms adjoining. On the third floor is a teacher's room and a library.

The heating and ventilating plant, which is a combination steam heat and fan blast system, with automatic temperature regulation will be located in the basement story and is designed to heat the building to 70 degrees when the temperature is 10 degrees below zero, and will furnish thirty cubic feet of fresh air per minute for each pupil in the building with a motor driven fan.

The toilet rooms are located in the basement story, one on each side of the boiler room, with entrance from either the inside or outside of the building. They will be equipped with modern fixtures and ventilated with fan ventilation.

Work is to start on the building as soon as the school closes for the season, and will be rushed so as to have the building ready for use by September 15 of this year.

The total contract price for the building is $29,8[illegible]7.

REFUSE TO FIGHT FIRE ON SUNDAY, HOMES BURN

Presburgh, Hungary, May 20.—The extent of the fire in the Ghetto Saturday when 500 persons were rendered homeless might have been lessened but for the strict religious observance of the Orthodox Jews in refusing to perform any labor on the Sabbath.

It was only after the chief rabbi gave his congregation dispensation that they consented to save the women and children. The Ghetto, which was the most ancient in Europe, was destroyed.

While the buildings were burning, the people stood by and saw all their possessions swept by flames but refused to render any assistance in extinguishing the fire.

PHONES 432 and 232 — AUTO DELIVERY

A friend of mine reported a conversation that she overheard a conversation between a couple of women on the meat question. They discussed various meat shops and among them mine. I couldn't add anything to this endorsement that would make it one bit stronger. The only thing I can ask is that you try it yourself and see if you don't agree with this woman. Your phone order will have very careful attention and very prompt delivery.

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 20, 1913

It may be true that is "class legislation" to tax incomes above $5,000 annually, but most of us are escaping the tax.

As one individual the entire party highly praise the people of Wichita Falls for the magnificent manner in which they entertained more than one thousand guests. Nothing was left undone to make every man and woman glad that they were there.—Abilene Reporter.

This is the way the delegates to the Firemen's Convention from Abilene speak of Wichita Falls. But Wichita always odes the right thing. All she needs now to entertain large crowds is another large first-class hotel—something that will furnish accommodations of the first-cass to 200 or 300 guests, and this will come within the next year in time for the Texas Press Assocation meeting, so we are assured.

A movement was set to work at San Antonio by Col. Frank Holland of the Texas Farm and Ranch to organize a stock company with none but Texas editors as stockholders and purchase a tract of land in the gulf coast country upon which to erect and maintain both a hunting and fishing resort to be open at all seasons of the year to stockholders and their families. It is estimated that a capital of $25,000 is sufficient to start with, and of this amount Col. Holland promises to subscribe at least $10,000 himself. It is a splendid project and one to which every newspaper man should give not only encouragement, but financial support.

In selecting as the head of its organization, the Texas Press Association not only conferred an honor on Joe Taylor, but honored itself. There is not a man within the borders of this great State who is in closer touch with the newspapers—both great and small, than State Press of the Dallas Galveston News. Therefore, his title is no misnomer. He is a big, broad guaged man, who has not allowed the responsible position he holds and has held for years to swell his head, or cause him to appear the least bit "puffed up." He is neither loud mouthed or self-assertive, but a writer of the three cylinder variety, running constantly seven days a week on high-gear and apparently never lacking upon a subject upon which to write—a human machine with no muffler attachment, and through the two great papers served by him is heard 365 days in the year.

Corpus Christi is in the race for the 1914 convention of the Texas Press Association. If the Texas editors assembled at San Antonio knew the distinct delights of undertowless and pleasures of a sail on Corpus Christi bay, it would take some brilliant inducements to persuade the typewriter demolishers away from the "Celestial City" in 1914.—Corpus Christi Caller.

John Stanton put up a great fight for the privilege of introducing Texas editors to undertowless in 1914, going so far as to promise each married man who left his wife at home a mermaid during his stay, but the Wichita Falls bunch had it grabbed when they arrived in San Antonio. Next time—but why speak of a meeting two years away?—Houston Post.

Wichita Falls, in landing the 1914 meeting of the Texas Press Association, was only keeping up her reputation of getting everything she goes after. The Texas Press Association is a statewide organization, and for that reason is supposed to distribute honors equitably. Corpus Christi has had the honor more than once. There are other cities that have not yet had the honor, and doubtless some of them will make it interesting for Corpus for the honor of entertaining the editors in 1915.

Here's a revised version of "The Story of The Talents." It is good. Read it, and it may do you good. "Not long ago," says Vera Cruz, "I was in a Pullman car at the dusk of evening. A tired old man and his still more tired wife came in and asked the price of a berth. Two dolars to the place he was going and they would land there the next morning. 'I won't pay more than 50 cents for both of us,' snapped the old fellow back and he and the tired wife dragged themselves back to the crowded chair car to pass the weary hours of the night. 'That man,' said a fellow near me, 'is worth $100,000.' Then in pranced a careless young fellow with about $6 in his pocket who took the berth the rich old fellow had turned down. He smoked a cigar, rested in comfort and went to bed with a laugh on his lips. Up in the stuffy chair car the old man and his weary wife tried to doze the dull hours away, and when they reached their destination they were exhausted. But the old fellow had $2 in his pocket and weary bones and burning eyes faded before the jingle of the coin. When he crosses the bar he will leave every dollar, every acre of land, all earthly possessions behind. There are no pockets in a shroud."

A PLEA FOR MORE PARTICULAR PARENTS

To Whom It May Concern:

And now that our schools are closing and vacation looms large before us the next question is, what shall we do with the children? This is a serious question and one that a lot of us stay-at-homes beg Wichiat Falls parents to consider most carefully. Turn the problem whichsoever way you may so please, but be assured of one thing—your neighbors do not want your children, no matter how nice but quiet they may be. The most discouraging proposition on earth to a mother who is trying to raise her children right is the young hopeful who calls EIGHT days out of every week.

No matter how good a child your own may be we do not want him while we are trying to persuade our nerves to hold close communion with the hoe, and as you value our peace of mind keep your little Mary at home until our Dottie Dimple has the dinner dishes washed. It is astonishing how some folks who honestly believe that they are somebody to allow their precious progeny to run around loose.

It is quite true that some few people admit that they do not mind the neighbor's children, but we who compose the ninety and nine have decided that it is high time for the trampled worm to turn. We object in future for the same child to call more than say about forty five times in one week—we can not receive oftener than this.

During the past school year I have done battle with the wayfaring child every Saturday and now that every day is to become a Saturday I have ordered weapons of war. I am a nervous wreck and my physician has ordered me to the mountains or seaside, now as I can afford neither it becomes necessary for me to ask for a vacation right here in Wichita Falls under my own vine and fig tree.

Last summer I had children call that were as strange to me as Adam's off ox. [illegible] ing the city [illegible] provide [illegible] for such subjects. We need more than a [illegible] amongst the mothers of this city. Once after I had had a certain boy all day long I heard his mother remark: "No, I don't pretend to keep up with them. God looks after them." (I have been called names before, but it was the first time I ever was called that.)

It is not fair—my dozen is all I can possibly keep in a good humor over. Please, please, bring your children to see me when you call yourself—then, please, be as particular about taking them on as you are about picking up your purse.

I cannot conceive of anything more delightful than a Wichita summer morning in my own home without the neighbor's children, but it has been so long since I have enjoyed such an experience. If I am expected to remain a useful citizen of Wichita Falls it is up to my friends and neighbors to save me.

Now I am not the only crank along this line. It is the wails al over town that have prompted this. Herd your own tribe this summer and pray [illegible] and you [illegible]

The Maxims of Methusalah.

Gelett Burgess writes 42 Maxims of Methusalah" in the June American Magazine. Following are a few of them

"Boiled milk is an abomination and the stink of peas cooking is disgusting to me but she who putteth scent into her husband's tobacco jar she shall surely cause his friends to say harsh things

As the bald headed barber who urgeth a hair tonic upon thee so is an ill favored damsel who recitetb the compliments she hath received

A singing gas jet can I bear yea, a faucet which squeaketh is not intolerable to me but she who hummeth merrily out of tune causeth me great anguish

My son enter not into flirtation with the next door damsel nor with her in the same apartment house shalt thou have dalliance, lest, when the time cometh, thou canst not flee from her

Women of understanding have I known upwards of thousands, but of them who would leave a theatre before the end of a dull play, nay, not one."

"THE WAY TO WEALTH"

SAYS FRANKLIN

"IS AS PLAIN AS THE ROAD TO MARKET"

Our failures are not caused by not knowing what to do or how to do it, but because of the lack of will to do what we ought—lack of determination. Every man and woman knows they ought to save; almost every man and woman can save, but lack the will to start saving. So they live on, paying high prices for the merchandise they use, paying credit prices, yet many of them pay the cash for these credit prices. Is this wise? Are you not entitled to your goods as cheap as it is possible to buy them? Then convince yourself that your dollars are buying their full value, for "every dollar saved brings a fortune a dollar nearer."

Without fear of contradiction we claim WE CAN SELL YOU MERCHANDISE CHEAPER, and we tell you why we can. It's no secret. It's the plan under which we do business. A method stripped of all unnecessary expense—no bookkeepers, no stenographers, no collectors NO LOST ACCOUNTS. All these things must be paid for. We ask you frankly who pays for them? It's an old adage that "those who dance must pay the fiddler." Then why have this painless surgery upon your pocketbook go on forever? Why not try the Balm of Gilead—the cash system. Buy as cheap as anyone. We buy cheap because we sell for cash and have the cash to buy with. Try it once and we guarantee you will never go back to the high price plan. "No morning's sun lasts a whole day." Come and see now—a good time to commence saving. "Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire." Why is our store always busy?

Proposition For Taking Film Here is Submitted—Chamber of Commerce Directors Meet

Moving pictures will be taken of Wichita Falls' principal scenes, and used for local exhibit and for advertising this city elsewhere, if a proposition submitted to the Chamber of Commerce this morning is approved by the advertising committee, to which it was referred The film would remain the property of the Chamber of Commerce

The directors took a decided stand with relation to the postoffice in the factory addition, and they asked that if better service was to be given that addition it be in the form of a sub station, supplied through the local postoffice, and not as a separate postoffice under a separate name. It was pointed out that by sending the mail sacks out on street cars, residents of the factory section, as well as the factories themselves, could have excellent mail facilities The matter will be taken up with the Washington authorities

At the instance of Postmaster Bacon, the directors decided to ask that through mail service be established between Mineral Wells and Wichita Falls; the co-operation of the towns along the line will be invited

The San Antonio delegation reported that it had got what it went after at the meeting, and it was extended the thanks of the directorate Those present at this morning's session were Messrs Huff, Hines, Marlow, O'Reilly, Bell Stanforth, Huey, Carrigan, Long, Orth, Pennington, Taylor and Henderson

WILBARGER OFFICERS RECOVER STOLEN WATCH.

Sheriff Keys of Wilbarger county, was here today and arrested a negro couple charged with stealing a gold watch from two negroes at Vernon, who in turn are in the Vernon jail charged with the theft of the same watch from a white man The watch was found in a local pawn shop and the negro couple was located through the aid of the proprietor of the shop and the local police

The watch which is a solid gold one was a gift to a Vernon man and bears an inscription on its back so that it was easily located It was stolen about a week ago The two negroes held at Vernon admitted having had possession of the watch but said it had been stolen by the couple arrested here When taken to the pawn shop the watch was minus the crystal This was found in the baggage of the negro couple

SCRIPT BOOK AGREEMENTS OVER THE G. T. AND W.

The Wichita Falls Route and the Gulf, Texas & Western Railroad have been made parties to the Texas script book agreements, and any Texas mileage script will now be honored over these lines The local company is also a party to the Oklahoma script agreements, and passengers in Oklahoma can use their script for transportation over the system. This is especially convenient for traveling men making the towns along the Northwestern as it permits of the use of the script, where in the past they have had to buy regular tickets, at a higher rate The script books are sold good for 1000 miles, at $25 and are made in coupons of one cent each Nearly every road in Texas and Oklahoma are now in the agreement
